District No. 1-Edmundson and Waring, me very busy; stated that there was a woman very sick some mile or more from the new cases, 12. camp; that she wanted a doctor, and asked if I would go and see her. I stated that it was Number sick, 37; yellow-fever, 33; nursed by ertson, and cleanliness is the standing order of the distillery.

I would go and see her. I stated that it was out of my jurisdiction; that the camp and its interests were mine to attend to; and I emphatically deny that upon his application I strugged my shoulders and entered my tent. On the contrary, I sought Dr. Nall, told him the facts, and asked him if he would go. His reply was, "My God, doctor, I am tired and broken down, and can't walk that far." I District No. 3—A. F. C. Cook, visitor:

Well, doctor, you have done all you District No. 4-Stoddard and Rogers, visitand there the matter should have ors: Number of sick, 90; yellow-fever, 80; ended. I feel that, through a mistake in the interest of the public good, you have removed District No. 5—Holt and M'Callum, visitme from a field of usefulness, to unwittingly ors: Number of sick, 159; yellow-tever, 110 gratify the petty ambition of a captain of a nursed by association, 150; convalescent, 2 relapsed, 6; died, 7; new cases, 31. [Mr. M Callum reports that having been delegated by the association to attend the burial of W. J. Smith, jr., son of General W. J. Smith, he was unable to devote any of the afternoon to his district, consequently the reports from the fifth district are incomplete.]

Dr. Boggs, who was assigned to duty in the third district in place of Mr. Ed Mans-ford, prostrated Thursday, had not filed his report up to ten o'clock last night. A number of male and female nurses were at the Howard rooms last night, to supply applications during the night.
